

An illustration of Moses, an elderly man with a long white beard and hair, wearing a green robe. He is looking upwards with his right hand raised, holding a large, reddish-brown stone tablet. The background is a dramatic, golden-yellow sky with a bright light source and a jagged lightning bolt on the left. The Chinese character '守' (shǒu, meaning 'to guard' or 'to keep') is prominently displayed in the upper center in a large, white font with a thick purple outline.
